

2.6 Committee Principles (including Terms of Reference)

The Board may set up committees to help carry out its responsibilities and due process (e.g. Staff appointments, internal audit, disciplinary, finance, property etc.)

Education Act 1989, section 66

- the Board has the authority to delegate any of its powers to a special committee except the power to borrow money.

Board committees:

1. are to be used sparingly to preserve the board functioning as a whole when other methods have been deemed inadequate;
2. can consist of non-trustees. Committees must have a minimum number of 2 persons, at least one of whom must be a trustee;
3. may not speak or act for the board except when formally given such authority for specific and time-limited purposes. Such authority will be carefully stated in order not to conflict with authority delegated to the principal or the chair;
4. help the board (not the staff) do its work;
5. other than the board discipline committee must act through the board and therefore can only recommend courses of action to the board and have no authority to act without the delegated authority of the board;
6. assist the board chiefly by preparing policy alternatives and implications for board deliberation. Board committees are not to be created by the board to advise staff; and
7. are to have terms of reference drawn up as required. It is suggested that these contain information about the following:
 - a. purpose
 - b. committee members
 - c. duties and responsibilities
 - d. delegated authority

Delegated authority for all Board committees

The Board may choose to delegate authority to any of its committees to make a decision on a specific issue on behalf of the Board. Delegation will be made in a minuted resolution which clearly describes the authority being delegated, including an expiry point or date for the delegation. In matters of utmost urgency occurring outside of a scheduled Board meeting, such as a risk to health or safety, the resolution may be put and decided upon by email to all Board members.

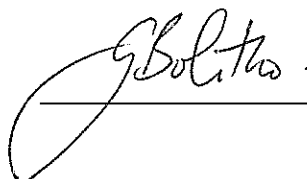

Non-Board members on Board committees

Except for the Student Disciplinary Committee, where the skills or knowledge required by a Board committee cannot be sourced amongst Board members, the Board may nominate at its discretion a person who possess such skills or knowledge.
