DN1201 Assessment Statement 2017

Course is endorsable

Year : 12

Course : Dance

Total Credits : 22

In this course you will study a number of dance genres in depth. You will develop and extend your technique in these genres and apply your understanding of the dance elements in a range of creative tasks. You will further your understanding of choreography and demonstrate this by communicating an intention for a solo/duet performance. Throughout the course there will be opportunity for you to showcase your dance skills in group performances. An integral part of this course is to extend your analysis, investigation and evaluation of dance performance and a chosen dance genre in context. * selection of standards for internal assessment and the timing of assessment of those standards will be determined at the start of the year.
