DN1301 Assessment Statement 2017

Course is endorsable

Year : 13

Course : Dance

Total Credits : 22

In this course you will produce a dance to effectively realize your chosen concept, interpreting your ideas through production, design and performance. You will refine your skills as a choreographer, applying your knowledge to competently realise an intention. Throughout this course you will have the chance to showcase your dance skills in both individual and group performances.

An integral part of this course is to refine your knowledge of dance to critically analyse, interpret and evaluate a dance performance and also demonstrate an in depth understanding of the development of dance in New Zealand. * selection of standards for internal assessment and the timing of assessment of those standards will be determined at the start of the year.
