Not Eligible for Course Endorsement

Year : 12

Course : Physical Activity and Sports Studies

Mr R Pinckney

Total Credits : 16

This is a practical centred course that is designed to maximise learning through doing. Students will study the principles of exercise and sport through an interactive and experiential manner. Study within this course will build on sporting skills, develop academic knowledge and equip students with the necessary skills to maintain and develop personal well-being and performance in sport and physical activity.

Prize giving decisions will be made based on mark book entries as of the end of Week 1, Term 4.
